

DOG REGISTRATION FORM

We welcome dog owners to Ty'n Rhos, however we must draw to your attention the following.

YOUR DOG IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY AND MUST NOT CAUSE A NUISANCE TO OTHER GUESTS.

Please pick up after your dog and place bags in the black bin across from reception. We have spare bags at reception in case you run out – please ask.

Leaving your dog in your room alone for dinner or breakfast

You must be confident your dog will not:

- 1) damage the room. All damage must be paid for, as well as all the lost revenue until we can let out the room again. Insurance is advised.
- 2) bark - if you are not confident you should put your dog in your car while you dine OR consider breakfasting separately.

General House Rules

When leaving the property your dog must be taken with you and not left in the room unattended.

Your dog must be over the age of 18 months old.

Your dog must be friendly with both other dogs and humans to be on our property.

Dogs are not allowed on beds or furniture.

If we must undertake extra cleaning such as bed throws there will be additional charges.

Dogs are not allowed in the public areas but can enjoy the freedom of our gardens where they are likely to meet Toby our extremely friendly English Pointer. Please note that our gardens back onto livestock farmland and are not fully fenced.

Please remember the next person in your room is unlikely to have a dog, they should be able to find their room the same way you found yours.
